

TREE ADDING PUZZLE 6

- Each number is the total of the two numbers below it.
- Find a solution for each of the trees below! There are many possibilities!
- An example has been completed for you.

Example

Four small tree outlines are provided for reference: one in the center between the top two trees, and three smaller ones (one on the left, one in the center, one on the right) between the bottom two trees.

TREE ADDING PUZZLE 6 ANSWERS

- Each number is the total of the two numbers below it.
- Find a solution for each of the trees below! There are many possibilities!
- An example has been completed for you.

Example

The numbers a and b must add up to 4

The numbers
c and d must add up to 1

The numbers
e and f must add up to -1